

In your consideration of telephone privacy, please do NOT implement any changes that will lessen Indiana's privacy laws. Indiana's law has definitely reduced the number of annoying phone calls to my family. While our law doesn't completely eliminate calls, it has reduced the number of interruptions during mealtime and family time. Please keep our telephone privacy act strong by not implementing any changes.